Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a page from a manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and flowing, with many ligatures and flourishes. The text is arranged in approximately 25 lines, filling most of the page. The handwriting is characteristic of the 17th or 18th century. The paper shows signs of wear, including some staining and a small tear near the top right corner. The overall appearance is that of a historical document.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the above named matter. I have the honor to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, Sir, very respectfully,

The paper I bought in New York was all the same as the one I got from the printer at Boston. It was made by the same man who made the paper used in the printing of the Constitution.
 It was also the same as the paper used in the printing of the Declaration of Independence.
 It was also the same as the
 paper used in the printing of the Bill of Rights.

My dear Mr. Jones
I have just received your letter of the 10th inst.
and am glad to hear from you.
I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
I am, dear Mr. Jones, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. J. Jones

To the Honorable the President of the Senate of the United States Washington
 Dear Sir
 I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. in relation to the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.
 Very respectfully,
 Your obedient servant,
 John C. Calhoun
